

ENVIRONMENTAL FILM FESTIVAL IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL

PRESS ADVISORY

WHAT: A Panel Discussion: Carbon: A Federal Perspective, organized as part of the Environmental Film Festival in the Nation's Capital, by Booz Allen Hamilton

WHO: Panelists: Mr. Gary Rahl, Senior Vice President, Booz Allen Hamilton, Facilitator:

Opening Remarks and Introductions

Ms. Michelle Moore, Federal Environmental Executive,
Council on Environmental Quality:

Federal Government Perspectives on Carbon Reduction

Dr. Dorothy Robyn, Deputy Under Secretary of Defense,
Installations and Environment, U.S. Department of Defense:

Department of Defense Challenges and Actions to Reduce Carbon

Ms. Mary Saunders, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Manufacturing and Services, International Trade Administration:

Federal Sustainable Manufacturing Initiative

WHEN: Sunday, March 28, 7:45 p.m.

WHERE: Carnegie Institution for Science, 1530 P St., NW

WHY: To provide perspectives on carbon reduction in the federal government

RSVP: Online to carbonnation@envirofilmfest.org with word PANEL in subject by March 27.